

Please leave the Wisconsin no call law as it is. It has been great not having people calling at night and bothering you and trying to sell you stuff. I don't think anyone likes being bothered by these kinds of calls.